These stamps were produced and distributed by illegal stamp producers who have consistently produced illegal stamps in the name of the Pridnestrovian Moldavian Republic since they became independent in and began issuing local stamps in 1991. Research is needed in determining the validity of any stamps in the name of this republic before buying them.

The illegal stamps usually give the region's name in Cyrillic, as 'ПМР' , although sometimes the Latin letters 'PMR' are seen instead. There is no consistent practice, with some stamps only inscribed in Cyrillic and others only in Latin.

Bagpipes are aerophones. Their function is based on pumping air through a bellows located in the left armpit of the musician to the leather bellows under the right arm: air flows through the apparatus (the so–called “piskor”) to the reeds in the pipes with holes. Through the vibration of the reed(s) the sound and tone are produced by uncovering one hole of the pipe with the fingers (called closed fingering), just as in fipple flutes.

25 July 2014 – Ukraine

4.80 Uh. – Musical instruments – Cossack Mamay - “Cossack Mamay” is a masterpiece of Ukrainian art. Cossack Mamai is one of the most popular figures in Ukrainian folk painting. He represents the generalized, popular image of the Ukrainian Cossacks. Every object depicted in the painting is a symbol or a secret sign. The kobza in Mamai's hands symbolized the singing soul of the Ukrainian people.

5.70 Uh. – Musical instruments – Kobza - The Kobza is the national musical instrument of Ukraine, created on the basis of instruments of ancient Slavs. In the 16th-18th centuries, during the golden age of the Cossack state, the kobza was the most favoured and popular instrument. That could be explained by ordinary people's love and respect for Cossack singers.

2014 – Moldova – Transnistria

This item was produced and distributed by illegal stamp producers who have consistently produced illegal stamps in the name of the Pridnestrovian Moldavian Republic since they became independent in and began issuing local stamps in 1991. Research is needed in determining the validity of any stamps in the name of this republic before buying them.

The illegal stamps usually give the region's name in Cyrillic, as 'ПМР' , although sometimes the Latin letters 'PMR' are seen instead. There is no consistent practice, with some stamps only inscribed in Cyrillic and others only in Latin.
