

2000 (58 countries, 68 stamps), a new millennium, the right moment for PostEurop to celebrate this event with a common theme again. The design of the French artist Jean–Paul Cousin has been selected. It represents a tower of six stars built up by children on a green field with the letter E of Europe on it. This Europa stamp edition will be a huge success. It is the last time that the Europa stamps used a common design. Most of the countries used that common design, some did not like this design (Yugoslavia or Bulgaria). Some countries used it but also issued a second stamp with another design like Croatia, Monaco or Hungary.

These stamps were produced and distributed by illegal stamp producers who have consistently produced illegal stamps in the name of the Pridnestrovian Moldavian Republic since they became independent in and began issuing local stamps in 1991. Research is needed in determining the validity of any stamps in the name of this republic before buying them.

The illegal stamps usually give the region's name in Cyrillic, as 'ПМР' , although sometimes the Latin letters 'PMR' are seen instead. There is no consistent practice, with some stamps only inscribed in Cyrillic and others only in Latin.

The stamps are part of a huge scam produced by illegal stamp producers in the United Kingdom, that involves 14 different countries in which the EUROPA 2000 "New Millennium" stamp issues that were authentically made were copied (crudely) and country names who were not part of the 55 countries involved, were inscribed on the illegal stamp productions. These are offered by numerous bad dealers to this day.

Les opérateurs postaux publics d'Europe, réunis sous l'égide de PostEurop, émettent un timbre-poste spécial dont le motif est commun. Pour la création de ce timbre, PostEurop a organisé un grand concours. Et, le projet déposé par l'artiste français Jean-Paul Cousin fut élu. L'illustration présente une allégorie, empreinte d'originalité et de symbolisme, de la construction de l'Europe.

Cette magnifique valeur postale, émise le 9 mai, contribue également à rappeler une date historique pour l'Union européenne : le 9 mai 1950. Ce jour-là, le Ministre des Affaires étrangères français, Robert Schuman, prononça une allocution considérée depuis lors comme étant l'acte de naissance de l'Union européenne. Au nom de son gouvernement, il proposa de "... placer l'ensemble de la production franco-allemande de charbon et d'acier sous une Haute Autorité commune, dans une organisation ouverte à la participation des autres pays d'Europe. ". Ainsi " par la mise en commun de productions de base et l'institution d'une Haute Autorité nouvelle, dont les décisions lieront la France, l'Allemagne et les pays qui y adhéreront, cette proposition réalisera les premières assises concrètes d'une Fédération européenne indispensable à la préservation de la paix ".

Enfin, cette initiative de PostEurop, s'intègre dans les actions menées pour promouvoir la philatélie en Europe et est soutenue par la Commission européenne.

De openbare postoperatoren van Europa, verenigd onder het beschermheerschap van PostEurop, geven een gemeenschappelijke speciale postzegel uit met een gemeenschappelijk motief. Voor de creatie van deze postzegel heeft PostEurop een groot concours georganiseerd, waaruit het door de Franse kunstenaar, Jean-Paul Cousin, ingediende project werd geselecteerd. De illustratie stelt een allegorie (doortrokken van originaliteit en symboliek) voor van de opbouw van Europa. Deze prachtige postwaarde, uitgegeven op 9 mei, draagt eveneens bij tot de herinnering aan een historische datum voor de Europese Unie: 9 mei 1950. Op die dag sprak de Franse Minister van Buitenlandse Zaken, Robert Schuman, een redevoering uit die sindsdien beschouwd wordt als de akte van geboorte van de Europese Unie. Namens zijn regering stelde hij voor om "...de gehele Frans-Duitse productie van kolen en staal te plaatsen onder een gemeenschappelijk Hoge Autoriteit, in een organisatie welke openstaat voor deelname van de andere landen van Europa". Evenals "Door de samenvoeging van de basisproductie en de instelling van een nieuwe Hoge Autoriteit, wier beslissingen bindend zullen zijn voor Frankrijk, Duitsland en de andere toetredende landen, zal dit voorstel de eerste concrete grondslagen leggen voor een Europese volkerengemeenschap, welke onmisbaar is voor het behoud van de vrede". Tenslotte past dit initiatief van PostEurop in de promotiecampagnes voor de filatelie in Europa en wordt het ondersteund door de Europese Commissie.

WATERS - NATIONAL TREASURE

Taking into consideration that the humanity meets the lack of drinking water and that the leading specialists warn that this problem will become more and more dangerous in the following years, the theme of the common postage stamps issue for all members of CEPT will be "The Protection of Drinking Waters". On that occasion, JODP Srpske Pošte issues a series of two special postage stamps and a special first day cover on which we can find the rivers in Republika Srpska-Turjanica and Sutjeska. They are rare because their water is still crystal clean. These rivers represent at the same time the ecological pearls of the youngest Serbian state.

National park „Sutjeska“ (waterfall Skakavac) - The river Perućica flows through the National Park „Sutjeska“. At the place where its water falls from the height of 75m, we can admire the wonderful waterfall Skakavac. The crystal clear water and untouched nature around it make one of the most spectacular natural beauties in Republika Srpska. The very river Perućica represents the unique example of jungle remains on our territory and in the whole Europe. Besides the huge quantity of wood pulp, it is also famous by the flora riches, rare endemic plants, natural beauties and different karst phenomenon. It is also rich by the game that lives there.

Turjanica - The small river rises near the village Donji Vijašani in the township Prijava. It flows through that district (area on the right side of the river Vreba, downstream from Banjaluca) and it empties into the Vreba in the village Čardabani. It is barely long 30 km and deep about 1,2 m. In its central course, through villages Ljubetovi, Alekovići and Bolikovići, there are many whirlpools. Some of them are even four meters deep. Besides its clean and potable water, Turjanica is famous by its numerous mills, which still work.

Design: Radomir Bojanić, painter from Belgrade.
Expert collaboration: Republic Institute for Protection of cultural, historical and natural inheritance of Republika Srpska, Banjaluka.
Edition: JODP Srpske pošte.

Frimærket i dette hæfte er ét af to EUROPA-frimærker, der er udgivet den 9. maj 2001 over temaet "Vand - en naturrigdom".
I frimærkets motiv indgår bl.a. en vandhane og et grundvandsspejl
(de stiplede linier foroven) som symbol på, at vi i Danmark som noget helt enestående kan hente rent drikkevand direkte fra undergrunden.

A Natural Treasure

Water filled quarries

The north of Guernsey is pock-marked with quarries large and small, created as a result of nineteenth century excavations for granite.

Kingfisher

Occasionally individual Kingfishers spend the winter in Guernsey, especially when their home ponds, canals and rivers in other parts of Europe are frozen due to hard weather.

Freshwater marais

Small marshes, called marais in the Guernsey-French patois, have formed along the island's west coast. Rain-water running off the land is held back by sand and shingle dunes.

Garganey

Drake Garganey are exotic with their chocolate-brown plumage, creamy white eye-stripe and plumes which cascade across the back, reminiscent of a military hat.

The theme of 2002 is "The Circus" (61 countries, 102 stamps). 2002 was also the year of the introduction of a common European currency: the euro €. Twelve countries from the European Union use the euro since the 1st January 2002 and some microstates such as Andorra, Monaco, the Vatican and San Marino. For the first time Europa stamps have a facial value in euro, although some countries had already a dual facial value (euro and national currency) in the last years before the euro introduction.

CIRCUS

The appeal of juggling lies in the sheer mind-boggling dexterity of the performers.

Their almost magical command of different objects has seen the word "juggle" enter the language to describe even the non-physical ability to do many things at once.

CIRCUS EUROPA

Clowns come in various guises, from the elegant "white-faced" variety to the weirdly made-up calamity-on-legs kind.

The favourite among British children is shown here, grounded after one more slapstick mishap.

The term "trapeze" comes from the Latin word for a four-sided object with only one pair of sides parallel.

Precision, though, is the name of the game here as its exponents show that humans really can fly – albeit for very short distances.

CIRCUS

The art of the knife thrower depends not just on skill but on the implicit trust of the (invariably female) person on the receiving end.

The excitement is all with the audience; for the performers the word is relief.

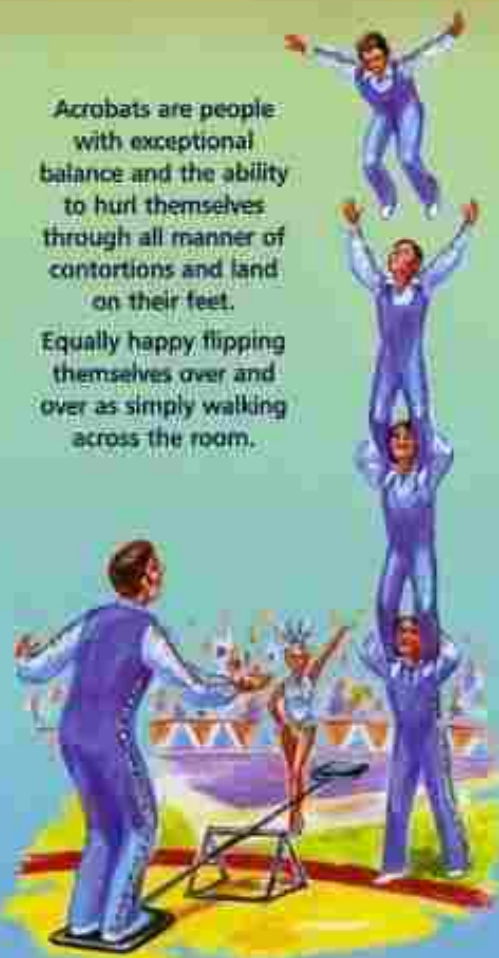

CIRCUS

Acrobats are people with exceptional balance and the ability to hurl themselves through all manner of contortions and land on their feet.

Equally happy flipping themselves over and over as simply walking across the room.

These illegally produced stamps were created and distributed by a British stamp dealer and his associates. The Republic of Mountainous Karabakh also known as Republic of Nagorno Karabakh has been in constant conflict between Armenia and Azerbaijan since the Soviet breakup in 1991. Many "issues" have been listed by some of the major catalogues although none are recognized by the UPU nor by PostEurop. These obviously are not listed and are deemed as illegal productions made from outside sources not associated with either country. This set not even recognized by Europa specialists. The Republic did not issue any Europa themed "stamps" until 2008.

The stamps have been issued in a booklet of 8 stamps (4 of each).

Poster Art was the theme for the year 2003 (60 countries, 101 stamps) and Monaco won the contest that year. Until 2007, the best Europa stamp was selected only by the members of PostEurop during their yearly plenary assembly and maybe they liked the nice blonde girl depicted on the poster of Monaco. That year Yugoslavia become Serbia–Montenegro.

Udgivet den 14. maj 2003

Frimærket i dette hæfte er et af to EUROPA-frimærker over temaet "Plakatkunst". Det viser Ole Woldbyes plakat fra 1970 for Thorvaldsens Museum. Plakaten er gengivet i gravure, udført af Lars Sjøblom. På plakaten ses et udsnit af skulpturen "Jason med det gyldne skind" i en interessant næroptagelse af Ole Woldbye. Skulpturen, der blev billedhuggeren Bertel Thorvaldsens europæiske gennembrudsværk, kan i år fejre sin 200-års fødselsdag.

THE SIGNWRITERS

THE STATION Andrew Davidson studied graphic art and design at Norwich and the Royal College of Art. He is a well-known commercial artist and book illustrator. As one of the illustrators behind a ground-breaking project for John Smith's Yorkshire Brewery, Davidson used vitreous enamel in pub sign art for the first time.

BLACK SWAN Stanley Chew studied at the Royal College of Art. After war service, he moved to Devon where he spent the rest of his life. Starting in 1960, he painted more than 600 signs, mostly in the West Country and mostly for Bass. His work is noted for the use of colour.

THE CROSS KEYS George Mackenney, one of the most prolific signpainters of the post-war period, studied at art school in the 1930s. He painted more than 6000 signs, many of them for Bedford brewer Charles Wells, in a career that lasted over 30 years.

THE MAYFLOWER Ralph Gordon Ellis became an artist after service in World War I and was a noted painter of portraits and landscapes as well as inn signs. In a 30-year career, he painted over 250 signs for long-gone breweries such as Atkinson's, Fremlin's, Watney and Whitbread.

THE BARLEY SHEAF Joy Cooper worked under her maiden name, Linton, and painted many signs in a bold contemporary style for the St Austell Brewery in Cornwall in the 1940s. The brewer's chairman, Egbert Barnes, was a noted connoisseur of modern art and architecture.

CHANNEL ISLANDS

With the arrival of the 21st century, Guernsey rebranded itself using strong images to emphasise all the natural attractions on offer in and around the island that sets it apart from other visitor destinations.

In 1995 advertising materials carried moody, atmospheric photographs of the sea around Guernsey showing boats at anchor and coastal landmarks like Fort Grey. The accompanying words emphasised the additional delights of Alderney, Sark and Herm.

Renoir DID!

EUROPA

Renoir's love affair with Guernsey's Moulin Huot in 1893 resulted in no fewer than 15 paintings of the bay. One was used almost 100 years later on publicity posters. In the same 1990s decade, in sharp contrast, a strong graphic design featuring a flower and butterfly logo also promoted the same message.

The Bailiwick of Guernsey

"Four lovely Islands you'll never forget"

Picture postcard-like scenes of Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Herm were used in the 1970s to encapsulate the Bailiwick's many charms. Apart from the benefits to the holidaymaker of a fast ferry service, the emphasis was on the gentler pace of life.

The Charming Channel Isle

Guernsey enjoyed more sunshine in 1966 than any other British resort. This statistic provided the ideal opportunity to highlight the island's natural charms. Not only could it offer golden sands, azure seas and breathtaking scenery, but also perfect weather!

Bold, colourful poster painting in the 1950s was designed to persuade the UK working man to try something 'abroad' but not 'foreign' for his family's holidays. Responding enthusiastically, thousands packed the Channel Island-bound ferries.

Illegal stamps

2003 – Georgia (Abkhazia)

These stamps have been denounced (in general) in Georgia 2012 UPU Circular 75 as illegally produced without the authorization of the postal administration. They do not have postal validity.

2003 – Georgia (South Ossetia)

These stamps have been denounced (in general) in Georgia 2012 UPU Circular 75 as illegally produced without the authorization of the postal administration. They do not have postal validity.

15 Rb. – Poster Art – Betty Boop and Bimbo

30 Rb. – Poster Art – Popeye Cartoon

2003 – Moldova (Transnistria)

These stamps are produced and distributed by illegal stamp producers who have consistently produced illegal stamps in the name of the Pridnestrovian Moldavian Republic since they became independent in and began issuing local stamps in 1991. Research is needed in determining the validity of any stamps in the name of this republic before buying them. The illegal stamps usually give the region's name in Cyrillic, as 'ПМР', although sometimes the Latin letters 'PMR' are seen instead. There is no consistent practice, with some stamps only inscribed in Cyrillic and others only in Latin. Transnistria has never been a member of PostEurop and does not issue Europa stamps or any other Europa philatelic material.

Nagorno–Karabakh (Republic of Artsakh)

These illegally produced stamps were created and distributed by a British stamp dealer and his associates. The Republic of Mountainous Karabakh also known as Republic of Nagorno Karabakh has been in constant conflict between Armenia and Azerbaijan since the Soviet breakup in 1991. Many "issues" have been listed by some of the major catalogues although none are recognized by the UPU nor by PostEurop. These obviously are not listed and are deemed as illegal productions made from outside sources not associated with either country. This set not even recognized by Europa specialists. The Republic did not issue any Europa themed "stamps" until 2008.

The common theme of 2004 (60 countries, 102 stamps) was holidays. The theme that year wasn't understood by each country the same way. PostEurop has chosen this theme with the meaning of "vacation" but countries as Georgia understood the theme as religious holidays with a stamp celebrating Christmas and another one for Easter. Greenland won the Best Europa stamp competition that year with a very nice stamp.

The year 2004 also saw the accession of 10 countries to the European Union, i.e. Czech Republic, Slovakia, Poland, Hungary, Slovenia, Estonia, Latvia, Malta and Cyprus. Various countries issued stamps on that occasion and these stamps, though not part of the PostEurop stamps, are listed at the end of this document.

ELEMENTS of GUERNSEY

Guernsey offers sheltered beaches and coves for safe bathing and hours of rock-pooling fun. The tiny picturesque coves on the south coast are the ideal place to enjoy the lazy sub-tropical temperatures: whilst the west coast sandy bays offer all the ingredients which make Guernsey a beach lover's paradise - hours of warm sun, clear sea and wonderful stretches of golden sand.

GUERNSEY

The sea has been the central influence in shaping the character of Guernsey and its harbours. Built up by Romans, privateers and merchant adventurers, the main harbour in St Peter Port is a historic symbol and modern day social hub of Guernsey. In the summer months, St Peter Port is alive with crafts filling the busy marinas.

ELEMENTS of GUERNSEY

Guernsey is renowned for its superb culinary offerings from the freshest seafood to the finest international cuisine. St Peter Port, the capital of Guernsey, is a small cobbled town with a choice of dining in cosmopolitan restaurants, to admiring the view in harbour side cafes or having a traditional Sunday lunch in front of an open fire.

ELEMENTS of GUERNSEY

The strategic position of Guernsey has resulted in a constant flow of invaders over many years, and this is reflected in its many historical monuments. Local museums offer memorabilia and displays that illustrate Guernsey's past. Hauteville House provides a compelling insight into the unconventional life of Victor Hugo, and Castle Cornet lies directly offshore, home to museums and gardens.

EUROPA 2004

Moldova este o regiune vinicolă cu o istorie de circa 5000 de ani. Preocuparea de secole a moldovenilor este cultivarea viței de vie și prepararea vinului, amplu reflectată în viața spirituală și culturală a poporului. Itinerarul turistic "Drumul vinului" cuprinde memorabile locuri pitorești, podgorii, combinate de vinuri, crame, inclusiv 15 vinoteci. În fiecare an, în luna octombrie, la Chișinău are loc Festivalul Vinului cu un program original, care atrage turiști din întreaga lume prin coloratura lui bogată în tradiții naționale.

Începînd cu anul 1997 în cadrul Centrului de Cercetări Arheologice este organizată Școala de Vară "Orheiul Vechi" pentru elevi și studenți din Republica Moldova și din alte țări. În Școala de Vară sunt organizate cursuri privind studierea și ocrotirea patrimoniului istorico-cultural, diverse activități practice, inclusiv săpături arheologice. Astfel, în anul 1999 participanții Școlii de Vară au descoperit două tunuri de bronz din perioada lui Ștefan cel Mare, strălucit domnitor al Moldovei (1457-1504).

Møskeneid med 11,7km² og 1394 innbyggere, ligger helt sentralt i Lofoten. Landskapet består av stille fjell og smale strandflater. Tur med staven via Mosstraumen, karakterisert som en av verdens sterkeste – og kanskje lengste – havstrømmer, kommer man til fjellvidda av Lofoten. Ut mot stormvetet har det vært seiling fram til 1950-tallet. I dag er seilingen konvertert til festleier av små tur- og fiskeribåter. Og det kommer på en stor...

42×26mm

1 May 2004 – Czech (republic)

9 Kc. – Accession of the Czech Republic to the European Union

Since the 1996 application for the EU membership the Czech Republic has concentrated its relationships with the European Union on the accession process. The Accession Treaty was signed in April 2003 in Athens. On May 1, 2004 the Czech Republic and nine other states – Cyprus, Estonia, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Slovenia – will become full members of the European Union, thus increasing the number of the EU members to 25

37×37mm

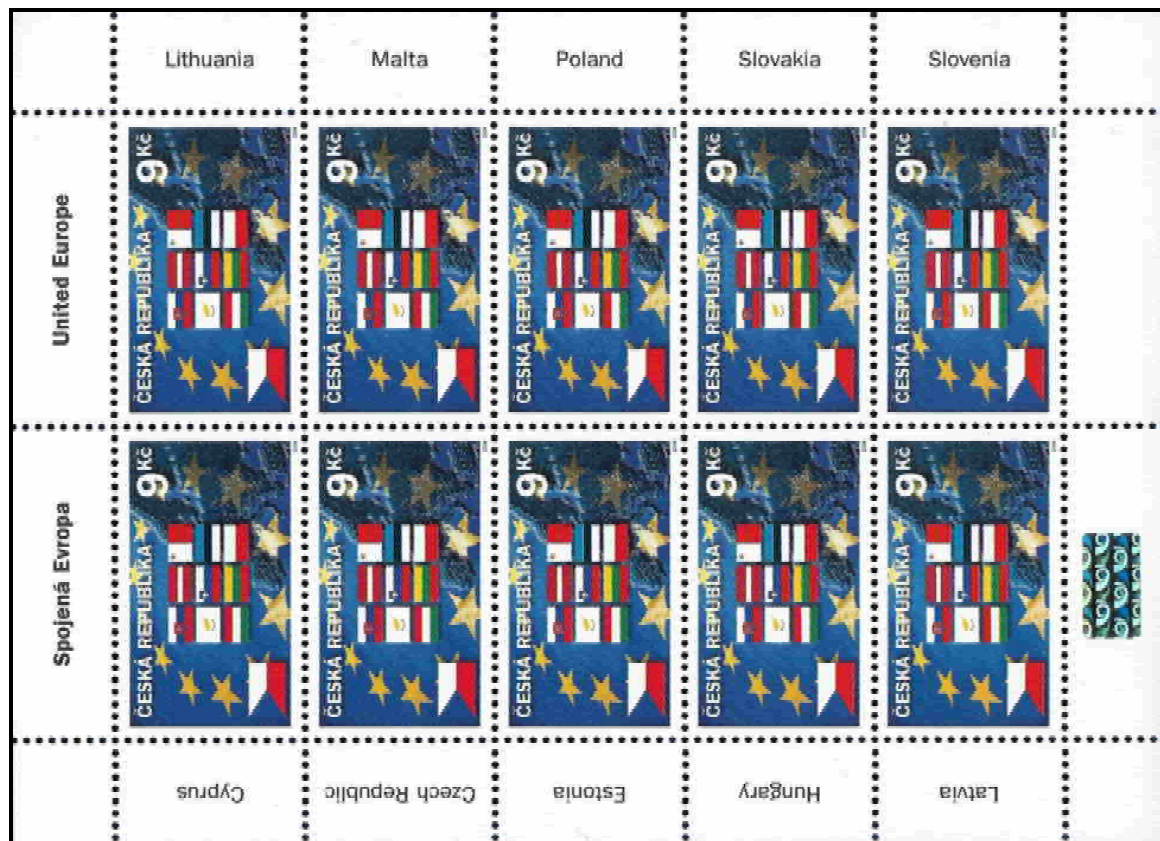

9 Kc. – Accession of the Czech Republic to the European Union

The joint postage stamp of the nine of ten countries acceding to the European Union (Czech Republic, Estonia, Cyprus, Lithuania, Latvia, Hungary, Malta, Slovakia, Slovenia) is based on a design provided by the Maltese Post and will be issued with slight modifications in arranged sheets of ten stamps and coupons. Poland doesn't take part in this project. The stamp shows a part of plastic map of Europe, Czech flag in the left lower corner of the stamp and flags of the other 9 countries acceding to the European Union in the center of the stamp with 12 golden stars.

Illegal stamps

2004 – Georgia (Abkhazia)

These stamps have been denounced (in general) in Georgia 2012 UPU Circular 75 as illegally produced without the authorization of the postal administration. They do not have postal validity.

10 Gt. – Christmas

20 Gt. – Easter

The stamps have been issued in mini-sheets of 10 stamps and in a booklet containing the 2 mini-sheets.

2004 – Moldova (Transnistria)

These stamps are produced and distributed by illegal stamp producers who have consistently produced illegal stamps in the name of the Pridnestrovian Moldavian Republic since they became independent in and began issuing local stamps in 1991. Research is needed in determining the validity of any stamps in the name of this republic before buying them. The illegal stamps usually give the region's name in Cyrillic, as 'ПМР', although sometimes the Latin letters 'PMR' are seen instead. There is no consistent practice, with some stamps only inscribed in Cyrillic and others only in Latin. Transnistria has never been a member of PostEuropa and does not issue Europa stamps or any other Europa philatelic material.
